THANKSGIVING

A Day to Remember
In All Our Prayers

Above all else, on this Thanksgiving Day, we raise our voices in profound thanks for the many joys and blessings that surround our lives: that good health and happiness of our family and friends, the prosperity and vigor of our community, the rich heritage of freedom which is responsible for our country's growth and development, its greatness. In these blessings we take pride, as did our forefathers. And with all our strength we pledge anew, as they did on this day, to preserve and nourish the gift of liberty.

A darling, baby girl — first born for Mr. and Mrs. Michael E. Hoy of 107 Grove Lane, arrived at St. Luke's Hospital on October 25. Pleased parents Sally and Mike named their first child Lisa Kirsten. Lisa weighed 7 pounds 7 ounces and was 19½ inches long. Sally's mother, Mrs. Kenneth Haugen of Glendale is staying with the family to help oversee things . . . you know how proud grandmothers are! The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hoy, also of Glendale.

Lisa's first outing will be when she is exactly a month old and travels with her mom and dad to grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Haugen's home in Glendale for a family Thanksgiving dinner and get together. She probably won't get any turkey off the bird on the table — but we bet grandma gives her a taste of mashed potatoes . . . and gravy!

Sierra Madreans Elected To Active Membership

Dr. Carlton Leon Burlison, 80 W. Sierra Madre Blvd. and Dr. William E. White, 245 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., have been elected to active membership in the American Academy of General Practice, a national association of more than 30,000 family doctors.

As a member of the AAGP, Dr. Burlison and Dr. White will be required to complete 150 hours of post-graduate medical study every three years. The program, unique among medical associations, is designed to help member physicians keep abreast of the latest scientific developments in medicine.

Founded in 1947, the AAGP is the country's second largest national medical association.

Meeting

For the November meeting the San Gabriel Valley Orchid Hobbyists will have an interesting group of speakers, namely: Mr. Rex Van Delden, Mr. Einar Knudsen, Mr. Allen Sylvester, and Mr. Carl Keyes, each will speak on "My Favorite Plants and How I Grow Them." There will be an open forum for questions.

The regular meeting meets at 7:45 p.m. in the lecture hall at the Los Angeles State and County Arboretum, Arcadia. Culture class: Mr. Carson Whitlow of Santa Ana will have as his topic "Blue Cattleyas — Species and Hybrids," on Nov. 16. This class meets at 7 p.m. in the lecture hall. Support your local merchant — buy locally.

More than 99 per cent of the members of the Armed Forces have Servicemen's Group Life Insurance policies which remain in force for 120 days after discharge from active duty, according to the Veterans Administration.

The new GI Bill new provides Post-Korean Conflict veterans with on-the-job training and farm cooperative training, as well as educational allowances for approved college courses, the Veterans Administration reports.

Letters To the Editor

Dear Editor:

This is an open letter to the anti-war, or so-called peace picketers, and I would like to ask them a few questions:

1. Why must you associate with so many unlawful characters, when holding your "lawful" demonstrations?

2. Why do you show more concern for the Viet Cong than for the United States servicemen?

3. Do you not realize that your actions play directly into the hands of the Communist enemies, and the Administration in Washington?

4. Why don't you do something about the fact that the Administration is supplying the Viet Cong in their efforts to kill American servicemen?

5. Is there any possibility that you feel Communism works, and therefore are not concerned about its growth; furthermore, do you feel that the United States government should insure Communism's continuing success?

6. Why do you fail to understand that the purpose of the war in Vietnam is not U.S. "imperialism" abroad, but rather tyranny at home?

7. If you are so progressive, why weren't you far-sighted enough to realize, in 1964, that President Johnson would do the opposite of what he said he would regarding Vietnam?

8. Is it true that you would prefer to live in slavery rather than die to preserve freedom for your children and their children?

9. Why do you seem so concerned with the atrocities of a defeated and defunct German government, when the Communist government in Russia is responsible for the slaughter of over 20 million victims, and it is presently ruling through puppets most of the world?

10. Why don't you join in a demonstration of support for the American servicemen, by helping to stop U.S. government duplicity and stopping all aid and trade to the Communists who are killing our men?

For more information, write THE VIVID Committee, Post Office Box 853, Balboa, California.

Dear Editor:

The following is a copy of a letter sent along with paper-back books being shipped to Vietnam. To: The Sergeant-Major Headquarters, U.S. Army Vietnam, Saigon, Vietnam Dear Sergeant-Major:

The box of paper-backed books with which this letter is enclosed is sent to you for distribution to a Battalion of Infantry or Artillery in or near the front line. These books were gathered throughout our town by the Friends of the Sierra Madre Library, and given to the Veterans of Foreign Wars, pursuant to a resolution of the board of our Chamber of Commerce, so that the troops now campaigning in Vietnam may have something to break the boredom during lulls. We are all concerned that our fighting men know that their hometowns appreciate

Already the proud parents of two fine boys — 5 year old Scott and 3 year old Terry — Jean and Gary D. Bottemer of 1280 Hastings Ranch Drive were equally proud and excited when they brought their new baby daughter home from the hospital. Little Miss Kimberly Ann, who weighed in a 7 pounds 10 ounces, was born on October 22 at Saint Luke's.

When mama Jean and baby Kimberly arrived home, paternal grandmother Mrs. E. J. Bottemer was on hand to greet them and to help out. Mrs. Bottemer resides in Ohio and will return, via train, to her home state after sharing turkey and the Thanksgiving Holidays with son Gary and his family. Bet the first thing Grandmother Bottemer does when she arrives home will be to phone the maternal grandparents, who also reside in Ohio, and give them a first hand description of the new baby, et al. However, Mr. and Mrs. George DeSimoni will get a chance to see Kimberly for themselves when they arrive to spend the Christmas Holidays with daughter Jean and family.

It's now a family of five for the Mitchell Tomovich family. The newest addition weighing 7 pounds 10 ounces was born on October 30 at the Methodist Hospital. Little Danica joins sisters Milena, 13; Loretta, 10; Desha, 6, and Natalie 4. The Tomovich family resides at 1105 W. Foothill in Arcadia.

First born for Mr. and Mrs. Louis K. Mac Donald, Jr., of 383 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., is a bouncing 8 pound baby boy. Master Louis Kin-erk MacDonald, III, arrived at Saint Luke's Hospital on November 3.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. William A. Burkhardt of Pasadena. And since little Louis is their first grandchild, Mr. and Mrs. Louis MacDonald, Sr., will undoubtedly keep both phonecalls and highways between here and their home in Oxnard pretty busy!

The year old Daniel Evan is very pleased with his new baby brother Jared Michael. Jared Michael was born at Methodist Hospital on November 1 and weighed an even 7 pounds. Oh yes, Mom and Dad are Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Rappaport of 1095 Hastings Ranch Drive.

Of the 447,600 veterans who trained under the G.I. Bill in fiscal year 1967, 72 per cent enrolled in colleges, four out of five as undergraduate students and one-fifth as graduate students working on advanced degrees, according to the Veterans Administration.

The Veterans Administration estimates more than half a million veterans who have served since January 31, 1955, will receive educational training during the next year.

Dorn Asks For State Welfare Overhaul

Gov. Reagan and his administration recently were urged by Supervisor Warren Dorn to make a "top-to-bottom" overhaul of the State Welfare Program because of its "complexity and expense to the taxpayers of Los Angeles County."

In a motion adopted by the Board of Supervisors, Dorn asked for a meeting with the Governor to discuss the program "and other matters." A previous request was made by the Board last October 3.

"With some exceptions, the present trend of both state and federal rules and regulations is making the programs more complex, rather than working toward a more simplified system," said Dorn.

"Time and time again, we have urged the state and federal governments to streamline administrative procedures and give counties direct authority to administer welfare programs under new, less expensive guidelines."

However, he added, welfare caseloads continue to increase and the red tape becomes longer and longer.

Dorn commended the County Grand Jury report criticizing the state operation. State Director of Social Welfare John Montgomery, Health and Welfare Administrator Spencer Williams and County Director of Public Social Services Ellis P. Murphy also were commended for their efforts to untangle the "welfare program maze."

Pays Out For Christmas Fund

Security First National Bank will pay out $731,000 this month to its 4,326 Christmas Club savers in the Pasadena area.

Savings checks were mailed November 15 to give area residents an opportunity for early holiday shopping. The checks also provide ready cash for other year-end expenses such as those for winter vacations, tax payments and entertainment.

Throughout Southern California, the Security Bank payout to all of its 125,000 Christmas Club savers will be nearly $23 million.

Altadena Federal Savings Christmas Club At $211,324

A distribution of Christmas Club funds in excess of $211,324.50 has been announced by Altadena Federal Savings and Loan Association. The announcement was made by Association president, Arthur L. Ferris.

Each year, around this time, the savings and loan institution distributes the savings funds which have been accumulated by members of its Christmas Club during the previous 50 weeks of club operation. These funds are then available for this year's holiday expenditures.

According to Mr. Ferris, this year's distribution reflects the savings accumulated by 1050 individual account holders, as well as over $4,909.23 accrued on principal during the Club membership period.

Mr. Ferris emphasized that "Each year thousands of savers use this approach to budget and prepare for their next year's holiday gift buying. It's the kind of planning that each club member appreciates when the time for distribution of funds arrives. It is also a stimulus to join next year's Club."

Becoming a Club member is a simple matter of setting aside a small or larger amount each week. For example, to collect $25 plus earnings, at the end of the 50-week period, all a member has to do is save 50 cents a week during this period. A larger amount, such as $1,000, would require saving $20 a week for the same period. Savings is made easy by the use of the 50-week supply of pre-dated slips provided for each Club member. Another point, accented by Mr. Ferris, is that each Christmas Club account earns the same full current annual rate that a regular savings account earns.

120 W. Sierra Madre Blvd.

Sierra Madre PLVV To Meet November 21

The Sierra Madre unit of the Pasadena League of Women Voters will hold its meeting Tuesday, Nov. 21, at 9:15 a.m. at the home of Margaret Benedict, 220 W. Carter Ave., Sierra Madre. Local Study again will be the main topic of discussion. Discussion also will be held on the League's continuing responsibilities under the National Program.

Members of League and friends are invited to attend. Please call 355-8895 for additional information and babysitting reservations. The Sierra Madre unit is devoting its time and effort on a local study of planning within the community. The culmination of many years of study on the subject of planning is a public meeting scheduled for Nov. 29, at Sierra Mesa School at 8 p.m. There will be an exciting roster of speakers from the field of town planning with introductions by Dave Wood, past Mayor and Planning Commissioner, and Doug Delahoe, president of the Chamber of Commerce.

All interested citizens are invited to attend this meeting to learn the Hows, Wheres and What-Fors of town planning and decide in what area they can best serve their community.

Letters To The Editor . . .

Dear Editor:

The following is an open letter to all Sierra Madre Community Hospital Foundation Members.

Dear Members:

This letter will be my introduction to the members of the Foundation as the new president of the board of trustees. It is the desire of this board to keep the members better informed of the operation of your hospital; therefore, you will be given further information at later dates.

A request that we investigate the feasibility of operating an emergency ward was made at the last annual meeting. This was investigated by the trustees with Mrs. Edith Fish and her committee obtaining much information. After reviewing the reports, the board decided we could not offer this service now. The cost would be prohibitive and the doctors on our medical staff could not staff the emergency room. A check was made with the police department and other sources, and the potential use found to be very small. We have the emergency room in operation, and it can be used by any doctor.

I am pleased to report that our financial position is good. The monthly payments are being made regularly on our indebtedness. The bills payable are being discounted.

Some of the major expenses of this year, other than normal operating costs, consist of the replacement of the autoclave $2152.75; a new sidewalk along Sierra Madre Boulevard $500; a new microscope for the laboratory $850. A heavy load on the air conditioning units this past hot summer created heavy maintenance costs.

The local papers printed a report of the Foothill TV Cable Company installing free service in the hospital. We do appreciate this service very much and so do our patients.

I wish to try and express my appreciation for the tremendous amount of work that is being done for the hospital by the ladies of the Auxiliary. They are there every day doing something for the patients. This is one of the things that helps to make your hospital TOPS when it comes to personal attention and care. The Auxiliary is one group all Corporation members can help. They have fund drives, including a rummage sale on November 17, at 33 E. Sierra Madre Blvd. Remember the Day At the Races on January 5. This money is used to buy hospital equipment. The ladies recently purchased two intensive care beds at a cost of $1438.50. You may help this dedicated group if you are not a member, by calling the president, Mrs. Jack (Juanita) Tilley at 355-8190 for information.

I will close this letter by asking each member to tell "The Hospital Story" to all of your friends. The hospital belongs to the Community without any chance of financial gain to any person or group of persons.

You are always welcome to visit your hospital. Sincerely yours, Carl H. Hobson, President, Board of Trustees

Paintings Of Late Hazel Pletsch Now On Exhibition

During the entire month of November, oil and water color paintings from the brush and palette of Hazel E. Pletsch will be on display in the lobby of Altadena Federal Savings, 2246 N. Lake Ave., Altadena. The announcement was made by Arthur L. Forris, president of the Association.

The paintings displayed represent the dedicated talent of an artist who spent more than 50 years portraying the California scene. Her landscapes cover the length and breadth of the state but show a special affection for the hills and valleys near Altadena and Pasadena, her home for the past 20 years. Several of her renditions emphasize the natural attributes of the Arroyo Seco and the Eaton Canyon area. Her seascapes and florals underline her particular interest in the California coastline, the wealth of native colors, and the other natural beauties in which the state abounds.

Mrs. Pletsch began the study of art at the age of 14 in Vancouver, B.C., under Thomas Frupp of the Royal Water Color Society of England. After four years there, she left for Montreal where she resumed her academic training under the tutelage of J. Horn Russell. Upon moving to Los Angeles, she attended Manual Arts High and Otis Art School. This was followed by several years of study with other well-known art instructors.

During more than a half a century as an active professional artist, she exhibited her renditions at many "one-man" shows, as well as receiving a wide variety of prizes and honorable mentions for works shown at art functions throughout California.

Upon her death in August of this year, Mrs. Pletsch left upon her easel a large water color in progress, illustrating Altadena's prolific magnolia blossoms and reflecting her ever-present interest in the many and varied colors of California.

Alverno Heights Commemorates Armed Forces Day

Alverno Heights Academy commemorated Armed Forces Day on Monday, November 13 with a special program. Activities included a flag raising ceremony and a student body assembly. Servicemen spoke to the student body on the four branches of the Armed Forces. Representing the services were: Sergeant Richard Miley, Army; Petty Officer Mel Cone, Navy; Staff Sergeant Bob Nichols, Marines; and Drexel Noah, Air Force.

Following, the Glee Club performed two patriotic songs: "I Like It Here," and "A Place In the Sun." Members, dressed in navy blue, red and white, were arranged to form the letters "U.S."

To open the day, there was a flag raising ceremony for the entire student body. Students gathered to sing a medley of patriotic songs and to recite a prayer for servicemen.

As a result of this assembly, two long-range projects will be carried out: baked goods will be sold to raise money for instant drinks to send to servicemen; correspondence will be arranged with servicemen overseas.

'Art Wednesday' Shop Opens

Now open for business Tuesdays through Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., the Art Wednesday Shop, at 945 W. Foothill, Monrovia, held an Open House Saturday, Nov. 4 and Sunday, Nov. 5. This gave one and all a chance to view the creative merchandise and perhaps even find some inspiring Christmas ideas. Along with the open house was an art exhibit featuring the works of some local foothill artists — Arleen Huseby, Bea McIvor, Irene Spencer Mastin, Joan Hill, Elaine Williams, Don Williams, Mrs. Alden Melzian, John Melzian, Winifred Rapp, Dale Larson, Larry Kopecky, Robert George, Arthur Carnorgo, Jackie Evans, Lydia Zintel, Druonne, and Jon Kroeger.

Refreshments were served as many people browsed through the shop enjoying the unusual gifts and lingered at the art exhibit next door.

Court of Honor
Troop 372, Sierra Madre, will hold special Tenderfoot Court of Honor at Sierra Vista Park on Sunday, Nov. 19, at 4 p.m. under the direction of the new Scoutmaster, Ray Hyke. The troop recently held Troop elections and Bob Edwards is the new Senior Patrol Leader.

Ramona Pageant Schedule Now Set

Maurice Jara, celebrated stage and television star, who has portrayed the role of Alessandro for 15 consecutive seasons prior to 1967, returns this year in a new role — that of director of the 1968 production of the spectacular outdoor drama. He will be aided by his talented wife, Hilda, as co-director when the 41st season of the Ramona Pageant is staged in the Ramona Bowl hills above Hemet on Saturday and Sunday afternoons, April 27, 28, and May 4, 5, 11 and 12.

The Maurice Jaras, who make their home in the Hemet-San Jacinto Valley, will replace another famous husband and wife team, Victor Jory and Jean Inness. The Ramona Outdoor Play has, like the climate and agricultural products, made the Hemet-San Jacinto Valley internationally famous. People from all parts of the world have come into the valley to witness this saga of old California.

DAR Meets November 20

Sierra Madre Chapter National Society Daughters of the American Revolution holds its November meeting on the 20th at 7:30 p.m. in the Parkhouse, 25 S. Hermosa.

To commemorate the first Thanksgiving Day here in the USA and the circumstances that prompted it, there will be a panel discussion on related incidents by several school teacher members.

On the 21st the State Society NSDAR (southern division) will convene for the third conference of the year at the Huntington-Sheraton Hotel in Pasadena. State President Mrs. Donald Spicer will preside and present, for the afternoon speaker Deputy O. Pollock from the Los Angeles County Sheriff's office who will talk on "Protection In Your Home."

Attending from the local chapter will be Mrs. A. S. Frey, Mrs. James C. Greer, Mrs. Henry Kelley, Mrs. Thomas H. Bailey, Mrs. A. S. Myers and Regent Gwendolyn Becker.

Hostesses for the November meeting are Mrs. A. S. Myers and Mrs. James C. Greer.

Western Bank Aids Insurance

Western Bank has inaugurated a mutual aid program to encourage insurance agents to participate in its consumer car loan campaign. First Western will collect auto insurance premiums for those agents who refer car loan customers to the bank and who desire this service, by including the cost of premiums in its financing. The bank will then transfer the premiums to the insurance agent at once.

In addition, the insurance agents will receive a $10 fee for each car loan customer successfully referred to First Western.

The $890 million, state-wide bank, which has been aggressively promoting its low-cost, direct to the consumer car loan program, points out that participation by insurance agents can help them retain auto insurance business which may otherwise be lost to other competitors.

Agents are provided with a potent sales tool in that their referred customers receive a free checking account for the duration of their loan. This, on the average, saves them approximately $30 a year in checking service charges. Thus the savings on a three-year loan, plus those on the preferred rate interest charges per year, can total enough to pay for the premiums.

Insurance agents are provided with individual referral cards and promotional materials.

Women's League On the Air

Now that we have received our yearly mailing from Harold Ostly, let us try to make it more meaningful by listening to "The Challenge of County Government: Los Angeles County and the League." Mrs. Pat Russell, president of the League of Women Voters of Los Angeles County, and two of her League Board members, Mrs. Julie Monson of Claremont and Mrs. Rita Blum of Covina, will explore facets of county government, how a citizen can acquire an awareness of this larger "community," and how he can use county government more effectively.

This program will be presented Sunday evening, Nov. 19, from 6:30 to 7 on "Focus: League of Women Voters."
